NOTICE

St. Joseph's University invites applications from staff members to host a SWAYAM program (please check the SWAYAM portal for the eligibility criteria). Faculty can also propose online courses for SJU students.

Those interested in hosting short-term or long-term online programs are requested to fill out the given form. Training and technical support will be provided by the Online Teaching and Digital Program Committee. Faculty who do complete the training and host an online program will receive an FDP completion certificate from the management.

Faculty members who are already trained and willing to train other teachers, as well as those who wish to conduct a few online classes for the subjects they currently teach, are also requested to fill out the same Google form latest by Wednesday, August 27, 2025.
