

CHRONICLES

On March 18th and 19th, 2024, St. Joseph's University's AICUF Association hosted the inaugural edition of their cultural festival, "CHRONICLES." The event commenced with an esteemed inauguration ceremony held at the University Auditorium at 9:00 am, graced by the Chief Guest, Former Judge of the Supreme Court Kurian Joseph, along with dignitaries including our Vice Chancellor Fr. Victor Lobo S.J, Pro-Vice-Chancellor Dr. Regina Mathias, and AICUF State Adviser Fr. Maxim Dias SJ.

The festival featured a diverse array of 20 engaging events, evenly distributed across the two days, catering to various interests and talents. These events ranged from artistic endeavors such as Pencil Sketching and Reel Making to spirited competitions like Indian Solo Singing and Western Solo Dance. Participants also had the opportunity to showcase their creativity through events such as Best From Waste and Face Painting, alongside intellectually stimulating challenges like the Bible Quiz and Essay Writing.

The vibrant atmosphere of the festival attracted participation from approximately 8 colleges from across Karnataka, each contributing to the spirited ambiance with their enthusiasm and talent. In a display of exemplary performance, Christ College Banargatha emerged as the Overall Champions, while St. Joseph College of Commerce secured the position of Runner's Up, showcasing the competitive spirit and camaraderie fostered by the event.

"CHRONICLES" proved to be a platform not only for celebrating talent and creativity but also for fostering meaningful interactions and connections among participants from various educational institutions, embodying the spirit of cultural exchange and collaboration.
